Kyutech's policy on classes and activities on/off campus (From the 2nd quarter)

The Government's declaration of a state of emergency was lifted and the request to avoid domestic travel between regions has been withdrawn on 19 June.

In accordance with the situation, Kyutech changes its policy on classes and activities on/off campus from the 2nd quarter (starting from 30 June).

Please be noted that the policy is subject to change depending on the situation.

We are still under the threat of a second or third wave of infection, and please be cautious and responsible for your actions in order to protect yourself, your family, people around you and the society.

1. Classes

Classes will be delivered in remote class in principle.

For the courses of the 2nd quarter, the spring semester and the summer intensive courses, classes will be delivered in remote class in principle. However, some experimental and practical works may be provided in face-to-face lecture, so please be prepared to come to the campus.

About the courses of the fall semester, the 3rd and 4th quarter, it will be notified in further notice.

For details, see the website of each campus and Live Campus.

2. Entry to campus

The entry to campus is allowed and please follow the rules of each campus.

The students are also required to observe the following.

- Avoid 3Cs (crowded places, confined spaces and close-contact) and make sure to practice social distancing (2m if possible, more than 1m at the least)
- Wear a face mask when coming to campus/going home, being indoors, having conversations even if you don't have any symptoms

3. Extracurricular activities

The activity groups are required to follow the guideline of the associations and leagues which each group belongs to, and check the facility, equipment and tools, and then submit an activity plan to the students section of each campus. The University checks the plan and the groups which take preventive measures well enough are allowed to restart the activity. For the groups which applied for this year’s Student Project, the notification will be sent to the leaders.

4. Training camps, away games/matches (including on-campus games/matches with invited opponents from outside the University), concerts, live shows, events

Submit an implementation plan with precautionary measures to the student section of each campus by e-mail. The University checks the plan and the necessity of implementation, and decides on the permission.

5. Domestic and overseas travel

The University’s request to avoid domestic non-essential travel, which has been asked since 6 April, is withdrawn from 24 June. However, please refrain from travel as much as possible. If you travel, watch the rapid changes of infection status at your destination and transit, and practice precautionary measures against infection.

About overseas travels, it is still prohibited.
