Application for the Kyutech Fund Scholarship 2021

The Kyutech Fund grants scholarships to self-supporting international students. Please check the overview of the application guidelines below, and submit the necessary documents to the student affairs office of your faculty.

1. Eligibility
   - Students who have enrolled in a doctorate program from April 2019 onwards
     ＊For those enrollee in April 2020 onwards or those who temporarily returned to own country, and are unable to entry/re-entry Japan due to Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) by deadline, will not be eligible to apply.
   - Students of exceptional character and academic capabilities, who are in good health
   - Students who are self-supporting and will be able to concentrate on their studies by getting financial support

2. Number of positions
   Around 20 students

3. Support Period
   April 2021 – March 2022
   - Students starting classes in October 2021 will be only given six months.
   - If students were late to entry/re-entry Japan due to Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19), scholarship would be granted from the month of arrival.

4. Scholarship Amount
   30,000yen per month
   - Students in a high level of poverty but with strong academic records will receive 48,000 yen.
   - However, in the case that students are receiving another scholarship, they will be paid the difference up to the above amounts.

5. Documents to submit
   - Application Form (Form 1)
   - Application form for Screening in Kyutech
   - Academic transcript on Live Campus issued by Student Section
   - Copies of the Transfer Request Form and your Bank Book
     (This can be submitted after passing the screening)
   - If students were late to entry/re-entry Japan, please submit the copy of document showing the arrival date (page with landing stamp in the passport).
   ＊Registered bank account in Kyutech will be used if any.
   ＊Students may be asked to submit additional documents if needed.

6. Restrictions   Only for individuals not already receiving 48,000 yen or more in other scholarships.

Deadline :　October 5th, Tuesday